 - Do you think God is pleased with the first two people?
4. Print the last page for students to colour in.

Once upon a time, there was a man who was traveling from one city to another. Along the way, some robbers attacked him. They took his money, hurt him badly, and left him lying on the road.

After a while, a priest walked by. He saw the hurt man but crossed to the other side of the road and continued walking. Then, a helper called a Levite came along. He also saw the hurt man but walked past him too, without helping.

But then, Jesus came by. He saw the hurt man and felt deep love and compassion for him. Jesus knelt down beside the man, bandaged his wounds, and comforted him with gentle words. He lifted the man onto his shoulders and carried him to a nearby inn.

At the inn, Jesus stayed with the hurt man, caring for him all night long. The next day, Jesus gave some money to the innkeeper and said, "Please take care of him. If you spend more than this, I will pay you back when I return."

Jesus showed love and kindness to the hurt man, teaching everyone around him about the importance of compassion and helping others in need, no matter who they are.

And that's the story of Jesus, the Good Samaritan!

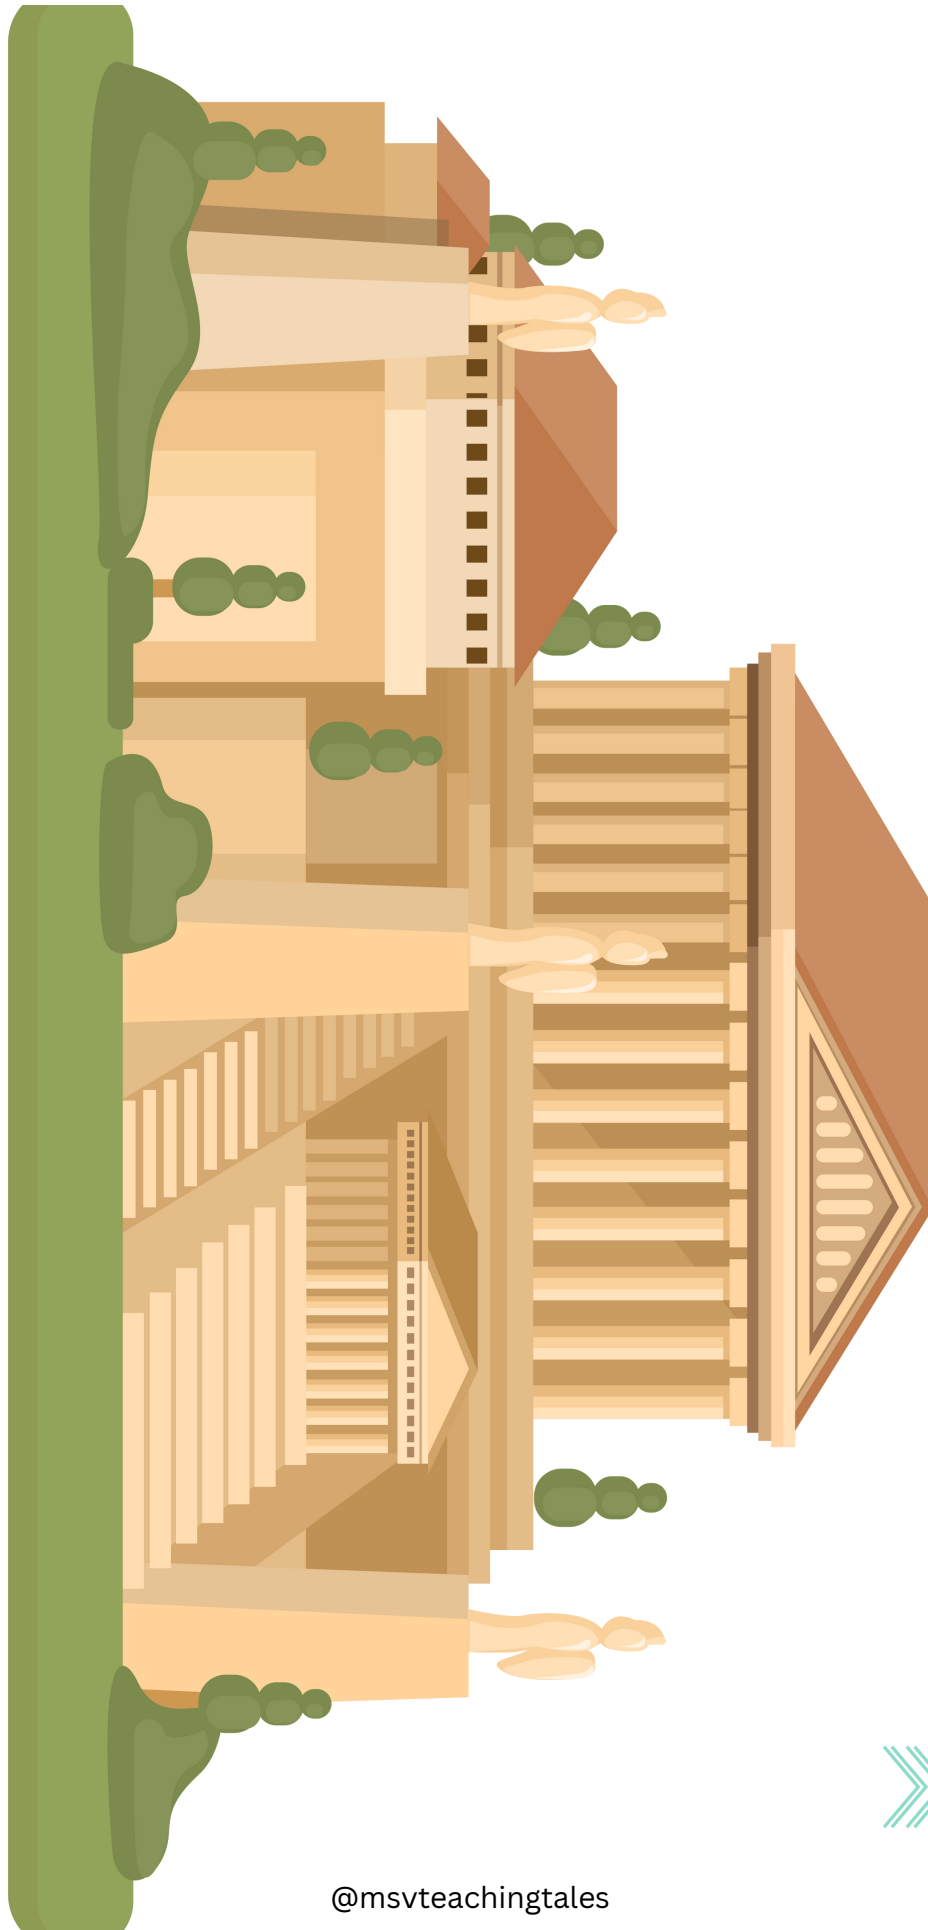

Thus says the Lord:
"Stand in the ways and see,
And ask for the old paths, where the good way is,
And walk in it;
Then you will find rest for your souls.
But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'"
